

Minnesota Basket Weavers Guild - Class Registration Form
October 23, 2021
Coiling on a Gourd – Guest Instructor – Jane Wilson

Registrations are open to all guild members and accepted on a first come, first serve basis. Please observe the registration deadline as noted below.

A separate registration form and separate check payable to the instructor (unless otherwise noted) is required for each class. Checks are not cashed until after the class has been held. Confirmation that your registration has been received will be sent via email. You will also be notified by email if the class is full and you can choose to have your check returned via mail or destroyed.

This class is being held via Zoom. If you are unable to attend the class and the registration deadline has passed, the class fee will not be refunded. Kits are mailed to you directly by the instructor.

Please contact Debbie Johnson (debjohnson58@gmail.com) with any questions or concerns.
